

A Premier Live Art Auction
Benefiting the Burchfield Penney Art Center
Wednesday, October 22, 2025

Chaired by Heather and Mark Notarius, (716)ART is a biennial art auction featuring significant works by a selection of Western New York's most acclaimed artists. Burchfield Penney curators and the (716)ART Committee select up to 20 pieces of exceptional artwork from the many talented artists who have called Western New York home. The auction showcases notable Buffalo artists- past participants include Monica Angle, Markenzy J. Cesar, A. J. Fries, G. Peter Jemison, Cindy Sherman and Muhammad Zaman.

Auction proceeds are shared equally between the Burchfield Penney Art Center and participating artists, and featured works are exhibited at the Center in advance of the live auction.

The event brings artists, art collectors and enthusiasts, and people passionate for Buffalo's creative community come together for cocktails, hors d'oeuvres, and an exciting live auction facilitated by Robin Starr of Bonhams Skinner.

About the Burchfield Penney Art Center

The Burchfield Penney Art Center is the heart of culture for our region, celebrating our diverse art and artists and preserving their vital legacy through a growing permanent collection and professionally managed archives.

The Center is also home to the world's largest collection of Charles E. Burchfield's work, including paintings, sketches, journals, and even a re-creation of the artist's studio. This American Master's vision, his constant exploration and reinvention, inspires everything we do at the Center. But his work is only part of what's experienced at the Center.

The Burchfield Penney is a vibrant arts center, curating and contextualizing a dynamic range of engaging exhibitions, events and programs, educational impacts, and inspiring connections that honestly reflect our individual humanity, while revealing and strengthening the common bonds that vitalize our community.
